Subject: Notice of Sunsetting of Term Plans in Business Data Services (BDS) Product Guide and Under Transmittal 1431 - Verizon FCC Tariffs 1 and 11

Effective today, Verizon^[1] has discontinued term plans for Special Access and Switched Access services under Verizons Business Data Services (BDS) Product Guide. Verizon is also filing at the FCC, under Transmittal 1431, tariff revisions discontinuing term plans for Special Access and Switched Access in Verizons FCC 1 and 11 tariffs. The discontinued plans are listed below:

BDS Product Guide:

- Commitment Discount Plans (CDP) for DS1, DS3 and IEF Special Access Services
- Term Pricing Plans (TPP) for DS1 and DS3 Special Access Services in Region 1
- Service Discount Plans (SDP) for DS1 and DS3 Special Access Services in Region 11

FCC 1:

- Commitment Discount Plans (CDP) for DS1, DS3 and IEF Special Access and Switched Access Services
- Term Pricing Plans (TPP) for DS1 and DS3 Special Access and Switched Access Services

FCC 11:

- Commitment Discount Plans (CDP) for DS1, DS3, and IEF Special Access and Switched Access Services
- Service Discount Plan (SDP) for DS1, DS3 Special Access and Switched Access Services

Verizon will continue to provide existing term plans already in effect until 1) the customer discontinues service or 2) the current commitment period expires, whichever comes first. New term plans and renewal of term plans are not permitted. Moves and changes are permitted provided that they do not require a new commitment period.
